This Bible Commentary series is for Christians like you, regardless of your age, whether you have known God for decades or searching for answers in today's fast and busy world. These books will help you read the Bible in a new and exciting way.

The Bible Commentary you didn't know you needed.

Once you have read the chapter of the Bible, read the accompanying commentary. These commentaries consist of highlights from that chapter, prayers, spiritual exercises and modern day parables based on those in the Gospels.

It is aimed at teens and young adults in a Popular style, that is a more conversational style, and assumes less background knowledge. The book talks to young people at their level using words and terms they can relate to. The parables are updated for the 21st century with no change to the meaning.

Mark Chapter 7

The faith of a Syrophonecian Woman
(24-30)

Pray that only good comes out of your heart.

You may only have one touch of the ball, but you can still score a goal.

Mark 7.36

The CD Store

A CD shop had just opened and it sold CDs for only £5. The word spread and because so many people went to the shop the shopkeeper became greedy and put the prices up to £7. People stayed away and the shopkeeper soon faced closure. He had to put the prices down to £3 to remain open and he made a loss.

Some men were walking up a mountain to see the fantastic view. Half way up one man asks where the view was. His friend said: "You're part of the view for those at the top looking down.

Does God exist?

Why don't you ask him.

Other Books in the Yahway Bible Commentary Series

The Acts, letters & Revelation

The second book in the series looks at the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters and Revelation. As you read the relevant chapter the book offers a prayer, summary of the passage, an updating of part of the passage for the 21st century, and in most cases a discussion point at the end.

The Old Testament

It looks at the Old Testament in full. It is designed to help the reader read the Old Testament in a new and fulfilling way.
